

Albert Agyepong is an Executive Research Assistant at TaylorCrabbe. Albert is a fourth year law student at the faculty of law, GIMPA. After demonstrating impressive research skills and an eagerness to acquire new skills at a previous law firm, Albert was offered an opportunity to work with Nana Tawiah at TaylorCrabbe. He therefore balances completing a Bachelor of Laws degree with his duties at TaylorCrabbe.

Albert participates in extracurricular activities such as mootings and debating and was named National Best Adjudicator in debate at the 2015

Ghana University Debate Championship.

Albert has keen interests in Constitutional, International, Labour and Employment, Land and Commercial Law.
