

Nana Tawiah is a founding partner of TaylorCrabbe and currently the Managing Consultant of TaylorCrabbe, leading the administration of the team for the next year. Nana Tawiah holds a Master of Laws Degree (LL.M) from the Harvard Law School, Cambridge Massachusetts. For his LL.M Research Paper he focused on Socioeconomic Rights in Ghana and its linkages to the constitutionalization of Development. He is a certified Mediator and has undertaken several mediation sessions in small claims courts in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and in Ghana.

Nana Tawiah Okyir obtained Bachelor of Laws from the University of Ghana in 2007 and was awarded the Best Graduating in Law for the year. He then proceeded to be called to the Ghanaian Bar in 2009 after completing his professional law programme at the Ghana School of Law.

He also holds a Bachelor of Arts Certificate with First Class Honours (Summa Cum Laude) in Political Science and Psychology, from the University of Ghana, Legon.

He also has Legislative drafting and Parliamentary experience, having worked with the Parliament of Ghana for almost 5 years and holding a Postgraduate certificate in Legislative Drafting.

Nana Tawiah has been engaged in legal and institutional restructuring of the public sector in Ghana. He was engaged at the Law and Development Associates (LADA) as a Senior Associate. At LADA he was part of the team that reviewed and drafted the new National Health Insurance and Forestry and Wildlife Bills.

He was part of the team of young lawyers engaged by the Constitution Review Commission to assist it in the consultations, analyses of submissions and eventual writing of the Final Report of the Commission.

Currently, he is working on assisting the United Nations Development Programme in improving the Legal Aid Scheme in Ghana.

Nana Tawiah also lecturers in Constitutional Law and Media Law at the Faculty of Law, Ghana Institute of Management and Public Administration (GIMPA). His research interests include Constitutional re-design and reforms; Legal and Regulatory Reforms; and Law and Development.